Notes du Père - Notes from Fr. Cyril

Chers amis en Christ,

Comme nous le savons, prier chaque matin au réveil est une bonne façon de commencer la journée. Cela montre que nous reconnaissons que nous avons besoin de Dieu dans notre vie, que sans lui nous ne pouvons rien faire, que nous l'avons placé au-dessus de tout dans tout ce que nous faisons, que c'est par sa grâce que nous vivons et agissons, etc. Le psalmiste d'aujourd'hui a une prière qui, à mon avis, est très belle, et je suggère donc que nous l'ajoutions à nos prières quotidiennes du matin. Elle dit : « Rassasie-nous de ton amour au matin, afin que nous soyons dans l'allégresse et la joie tout au long de nos jours. Que la grâce de l'Éternel, notre Dieu, soit sur nous, et que nous fassions prospérer l'œuvre de nos mains. » Bonne semaine à tous !

Dear friends in Christ,

As we know, praying every morning when we wake up from sleep is a good way to start the day. It shows that we recognize that we need God in our lives; that without him we can do nothing; that we have placed him above all things in everything we do; that it is by his grace that we live and move, etc. Today's psalmist has a prayer which for me is a good one, and so, I would suggest we add it in our daily morning prayers. It says; "Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands." A blessed week to all!

From the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops

The President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB), the Most Rev. William T. McGrattan, sent a letter to the Most Reverend Bernard A. Hebda, Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, to express the profound closeness of the Church in Canada to the grieving students, families, teachers, and parishioners of Annunciation Parish and School, as well as to all the faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, following the August 27th tragic mass shooting, which claimed the lives of two children and injured many others.

It is especially heartbreaking that children, their pastor, and teachers were targeted as they gathered joyfully for the new school year for the celebration of the Eucharist. The faithful in Canada are asked to pray for the eternal repose of the two children who lost their lives, for the recovery of the injured, and for the comfort and healing for the entire community affected by this senseless act of violence. In these painful moments, may Christ, who never abandons the suffering, bring peace and strength to all those affected by this tragedy.

Knights of Columbus Cemetery Sunday (Sunday, September 7th)

Every year the Knights of Columbus hosts Cemetery Sunday. This year's observance will be held on September 7th at 2:00 pm at St. Mary's Cemetery, North Bay, and also at 3:00 pm at Holy Cross Cemetery, North Bay. Cemetery Sunday provides the Catholic community with a special opportunity to visit and pray for their family and friends, a time to socialize and remember old times and an occasion where children can learn about their family history. Presider: Deacon Roger Goode.

Dimanche au cimetière des Chevaliers de Colomb (Le dimanche 7 septembre)

Chaque année, les Chevaliers de Colomb organisent le Dimanche au cimetière. Cette année, la cérémonie aura lieu le 7 septembre à 14 h au cimetière St. Mary's, à North Bay, et à 15 h au cimetière Holy Cross, également à North Bay. Le Dimanche au cimetière offre à la communauté catholique une occasion spéciale de rendre visite à leurs proches et de prier pour eux, un moment pour socialiser et se remémorer le bon vieux temps, ainsi qu'une occasion pour les enfants d'en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire de leur famille. Président: Diacre Roger Goode.
