Notes from Fr. Cyril – Notes du Père Cyril

- Dear friends in Christ,

Paul reminds us in the second reading of today that God chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. May we always walk and work in the way of holiness, always make effort each day to be better Christians. May God bless you all and I wish you a blessed week.

- Chers amis en Christ,

Paul nous rappelle dans la deuxième lecture d'aujourd'hui que Dieu nous a choisis, dans le Christ, avant la fondation du monde, pour que nous soyons saints, et immaculés devant lui, dans l'amour. Pussions-nous toujours marcher et travailler sur le chemin de la sainteté, toujours faire des efforts chaque jour d'être de meilleurs chrétiens. Que Dieu vous bénisse tous et je vous souhaite une bonne semaine.

As we continue to welcome Fr. Cyril to ABC Parishes, we'd like to share with you a little bit of Fr. Cyril's background.

- Fr. Cyril Okebanama, S.M.M.M.
Current Administrator, St. Anne (Mattawa), St. Thomas d'Aquin (Astorville), St. Bernadette (Bonfield), and Sacred Heart of Jesus (Corbeil).

Father Cyril Okebanama hails from Ihitte/Uboma local government Area of Imo State, Nigeria. Fr. Cyril, who was brought up in a devout Catholic home, is the fifth of seven surviving children. Both of his parents were teachers. As a young child and in his youth, Fr. Cyril was actively involved in his parish. He served as an altar server and was a member of the Block Rosary, a group that gathered each evening to say the Rosary and to also do corporal works of mercy. In his parish, Fr. Cyril was always the person who was chosen to help the local seminarians when they were engaging in apostolic work in their parish.

Fr. Cyril is a member of the Sons of Mary, Mother of Mercy Congregation (S.M.M.M), a Religious Order. Prior to becoming a priest, Fr. Cyril pursued 11 years of study prior to being ordained on July 9, 2011 in Nigeria. It was four years after ordination, where Fr. Cyril was called by his Superior to go on a Mission to Canada, to work under Bishop Mulhall for the Diocese of Pembroke in 2015. Fr. Cyril has happily been here ever since. For close to 10 years, Fr. Cyril has served as pastor and/or administrator at various parishes in our Diocese, including his original posting at ABC Parishes (2017-2020), followed by serving as Pastor at St. Theresa's in Temiskaming and Our Lady of the Lake Mission in Kipawa (2020-2024), followed by his current assignment to move to Mattawa and serve the parishioners at St. Anne and the parish communities of Astorville, Bonfield and Corbeil.

Fr. Cyril's inspiration in becoming a priest emanates very simply from his love of God and humanity. He finds great gratitude in hearing confession as it gives him great joy to help people reconcile with God, which he finds essential in the worship of God. He says, "Those who put their trust in God are like Mount Zion - they cannot be shaken and they stand forever. No one should ever forget that to be near God is the greatest happiness."

"Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament
is the Living Heart of each of our parishes"
Pope Paul VI
