Notes du Père - Notes from Fr. Cyril

Chers amis dans le Christ,

Jésus nous rappelle dans l'Évangile d'aujourd'hui que si nous demandons, nous recevrons ; si nous cherchons, nous trouverons ; et si nous frappons, la porte nous sera ouverte. Donc, alors que nous travaillons à nos tâches quotidiennes en cette nouvelle semaine, remettons tout entre les mains de Dieu. Même si nous demandons depuis longtemps une chose particulière à Dieu et qu'il semble ne pas nous écouter, ne pensons pas que Dieu ne répond pas à nos prières ou qu'il nous a abandonnés. Continuons à demander, à chercher et à frapper. Ne nous décourageons pas, car comme nous le savons, l'un des meilleurs moyens de réussir dans la vie est de toujours essayer une fois de plus. Que Dieu bénisse ses paroles dans nos cœurs et je vous souhaite une semaine bénie, Amen.

Dear friends in Christ,

Jesus reminds us in today's gospel that if we ask, it will be given to us; if we search, we shall find; and if we knock, the door will be opened for us. So, as we go about our daily tasks in the new week, let us place everything in God's hands. Even if we have been asking for a long time for a particular thing from God, and it seems God is not listening, let us not feel that God doesn't answer prayers or that He has abandoned us, let us keep asking, searching and knocking. Let's not be discouraged in any way, for as we know, one of the best ways of succeeding in life is to always try one more time. May God bless his words in our hearts and I wish us a blessed week, Amen.

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly (Sunday, July 27, 2025)

The CCCB Standing Committee for Family and Life, in collaboration with its Office for Family and Life, has released a one-minute promotional video to mark the fifth World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, taking place on Sunday, 27 July 2025. The CCCB video illustrates the beauty of intergenerational relationships, portraying children engaging with their grandparents both digitally and in person, as well as spending time with “adopted grandparents” – seniors in their community welcomed as part of the family. This annual observance was instituted by Pope Francis in 2021 and is celebrated by the universal Church on or near the liturgical Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, grandparents of Jesus. The theme, chosen by Pope Francis earlier this year, is “Blessed are those who have not lost hope” (cf. Sir 14:2). The video and related materials can be found at the following link: <https://www.cccb.ca/faith-moral-issues/family-and-life/grandparents-and-the-elderly/>
